101 Devanshi Jain jaindevanshi98@gmail.com I certainly loved the Movies as well as the books. The cinematography used to make the fantastic beasts is awesome. The storyline is different from Harry Potter books. it is pretty refreshing to read. You will have a deeper look at Dumbledore's character in this franchise.

102 Faiz Ali ali345@yahoo.com I found it really boring. After reading Harry Potter books, you will have high expectation from JK Rowling but she did not live up to it. Eddie Redmayne and Johnny Depp acted well in the movies. But Dumbledore wasn't played well.

101 Harsh Bansal harshban358@gmail.com Harry Potter is fine. I'm not as connected to the films and scores as many others here, and I have zero nostalgic relationship them as I was well into my 20s when they came out, but the third score is a masterpiece. And the films are entertaining enough even for an adult

102 Riya Goyal goyalriya@yahoo.com I must admit I really enjoyed the entire Harry Potter collection, and read them incredibly quickly. I think we are all drawn to an orphan boy with magical powers, and the struggles that he faces in terms of friendship, isolation, rivalries and truths regarding his background, his parents and evil powers taking overworld. Overall it was a great experience.
